Level Test Sept. 7th, 2020 (Mon.) & Sept. 8th, 2020 (Tue.).

- ◆ For Introductory Korean Course, there will be a level test on the first day of class.
 *Mon. & Wed. Class 📅 September 7th, 2020 (Monday)
 *Tue. & Thur. Class 📅 September 8th, 2020 (Tuesday)
- ◆ So, students who wants to take the level test or who wants to change their level from level 1 to level 2 can take the level test during the dates mentioned above to check their level.

Important Notice!!

- ▶ Print out the Level Confirmation Form before the class and prepare it so that you can confirm your final choice of level and show it to the teacher.
- ▷ Students who are willing to change their level from level 1 to level 2, should make sure to check their level with the Korean teacher through the level test, and make sure to fill out the Level Confirmation Form after you make your final decision of your level and show it to the Korean teacher as well.
- ※After the level test, the Korean teacher will recommend the level that you should take according to the result of your level test.
- 📖According to the level test result, students who registered for level 2 can also receive recommendation from the Korean teacher to take level 1.

※※ If you choose to stick with the current level (level 2) even though the Korean teacher recommended level 1 for you, any disadvantages (such as low grade etc) caused by sticking with the current level are your own responsibility.
 So, before deciding about changing your level, please make sure read the course curriculum of each level carefully and check if you are able to take the level or not.
